Extinct Animals: An Encyclopedia of Species That Have Disappeared During Human History

By Ross Piper

Greenwood. Hardcover. Book Condition: New. Hardcover. 204 pages. Dimensions: 10.0in. x 7.0in. x 0.8in. Everyone is familiar with the dodo and the woolly mammoth, but how many people have heard of the scimitar cat and the Falkland Island fox? Extinct Animals and Its companion, Extinct Animals and Its companion, portrays over 60 remarkable animals that have been lost forever during the relatively recent geological past. Each entry provides a concise discussion of the history of the animal, how and where it lived, and how it became extinct, as well as the scientific discovery and analysis of the creature. In addition, this work examines what led to extinction, from the role of cyclical swings in the Earth's climate to the spread of humans and their activities. Many scientists believe that we are in the middle of a mass extinction right now, caused by the human undermining of the Earth's complex systems that support life. Understanding what caused the extinction of animals in the past may help us understand and prevent the extinction of species in the future. Extinct Animals and Its companion examines the biology and history of some of the most interesting creatures that have ever lived, including: The American Terror Bird, which probably became extinct over 1 million years ago,...
