Prompted by seemingly clear signs of the times, I had published, three years previously, - 1911 - a booklet under the title, Thought and Fact for To-day. In the introduction to the book I declared that, War is not a necessary, and therefore is not to be a perpetual, accompaniment of social, or national development. It has become a relic, or a survival of the life of savage and barbaric man, unworthy of toleration under the enlightenment fast spreading among the mankind of to-day. And even though, for the purpose of self-defense against the lust of gain and power of some nations, it may be necessary for the best of peoples to continue to bear arms, it is...
