Pam of Babylon (Paperback)

By Suzanne Jenkins

Createspace, United States, 2011. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 201 x 132 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .For Long Islander Pam Smith, happily preparing for the return of her husband every Friday night is a way of life, until she receives a dreaded telephone call that will change everything, forever. Three very different women—a wife and two mistresses—gather at the deathbed of Jack Smith, the man that connects them all. As they grapple with their loss, they come to know one another, realizing that the man they all loved was not what he seemed to be. Can they discover the whole truth about Jack and make peace with it, or is their trust in him already too deeply shattered? Pam of Babylon is a compelling read, which engages the senses and provokes response. Wonderfully written and beautifully told, this is a knockout novel about love, forgiveness, and the mysteries of the human heart. Pam of Babylon is the first of eleven novels in the series. Come along for the ride of your life as you ask yourself this one question. How well do I know my husband? An intriguing first novel that revolves around a...
